

Wildflower Walks

Saturday, May 6 – 2 p.m.

Wolf Run Park

17621 Yauger Rd. Mount Vernon 43050

Join Volunteers Janet Chandler, Laurie Thompson and Miriam Dean-Otting for a leisurely-paced hike through Wolf Run looking for and identifying wildflowers. Wolf Run trails are a nice mix of wooded and open field areas and the wildflowers in these different ecosystems will not disappoint.

Dress for the weather conditions and sturdy walking shoes are recommended.

Monday, May 8 – 6 p.m.

Wolf Run Park

17621 Yauger Rd. Mount Vernon 43050

Join Volunteers Judith Crouse, Miriam Dean-Otting and Beth Waller for another leisurely-paced hike through the fields and woods of Wolf Run in search of spring blooming plants. Native plants will be encountered as well as non-native plants and potentially those, which can become invasive in various ecosystems. Dress for the weather conditions and sturdy walking shoes are recommended.

NOTICE!

The Wildflower Walk planned for Monday, May 8 at Wolf Run Park (above) has been rescheduled for Thursday, May 11 at 6:00 p.m. due to forecasted inclement weather.
